

Work in Health. Live in Paradise.

Mossman Gateway to the Daintree Rainforest

Mossman is picturesque township nestled at the foot of the mountain and surrounded by green fields of sugar cane. Mossman is part of the Douglas Shire Council and the region is home to over 12,000 residents including Port Douglas, Mossman, and the Mossman Gorge Aboriginal Community. Five minutes west of Mossman is the lush rainforest of Mossman Gorge a perfect spot to swim and experience the wonders of the Daintree National Park. Cairns is just over an hour's drive from Mossman, along the famous scenic coastal highway.
